

POLITICAL BREEZES.

PREPARING FOR MORE CAMPAIGNS.

Pennsylvania Democrats Getting Ready to Be Whipped—Massachusetts Prohibitionists—The Outlook for Headmaster Success in Virginia.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 28.—The Democratic State Convention was called to order at twelve noon by Chairman Dill, of the State Central Committee, who appointed a number of sergeants-at-arms and doorkeepers. The proceedings were opened with prayer, and after the appointment of a number of secretaries the roll was called and resolutions were adopted. William W. H. Russell, of Lancaster, was unanimously chosen temporary chairman. He was greeted with the most hearty applause, and acknowledged the honor in a glowing speech, making a pathetic reference to the recent death of the President. He declared that time had vindicated the capacity of the Democracy to maintain the true principles of the Government. His speech was especially applauded, and proposition fixing an order of business was presented by Mr. McGowan, of Philadelphia, and called forth an extended discussion. The convention then adjourned until three p. m. The committee on organization met afterward, Colonel Duff in the chair, and agreed to make the temporary chairmen, Messrs. Russell and McGowan, and to have vice-presidents and secretary from each senatorial district. The temporary secretaries were also to be permanent.

The convention reassembled at three o'clock, Mr. Oakes, of Philadelphia, was admitted as a delegate from the twenty-seventh senatorial district. The report of the committee on permanent organization was presented and adopted. It provided that Mr. Russell, the temporary chairman, should be made permanent chairman. Mr. Russell was again applauded. The report of the committee on resolutions was read and adopted.

The following names were then placed in nomination for State treasurer: P. S. Newmyer, of Fayette; Colonel P. M. Guthrie, Edward F. Kerr, Oakes; Noble, of Erie; J. K. Rogers, of Luzerne; J. M. Hackett, of Northampton; John S. Davis, of Philadelphia; Colonel D. C. Dinsinger, of Northumberland; H. B. Plumer, of Venango, and Hon. J. H. Ross, of York. Two ballots were taken without a choice, and at half past six p. m. a recess was taken till half past seven.

The convention reassembled a few minutes after eight o'clock and resumed balloting. Newmyer was withdrawn after the first ballot; Hackett after the third. Ross after the fourth, leaving after the fifth.

On the ninth ballot Noble received 140; Davis, 94; Rogers, 5; Plumer, 4; Dill, 3. Noble's nomination was made unanimous.

At eleven o'clock the convention had taken eight ballots, resulting as follows: Noble, 94; Davis, 72; Rogers, 29; Guthrie, 25; Plumer, 14; Kerr, 13.

Massachusetts Prohibitionists.—The Prohibition State convention which met to-day, about 150 delegates were present, one-third of whom were ladies. Thomas J. Lathrop was elected president, and the committee on credentials reported ten cities and thirty-six towns represented by 150 delegates.

Another American Victory.—The Newmarket first October meeting, the Grand steeple chase two-year-olds was won by Mr. J. R. Keene's bay colt Golden Gate. Mr. Lefebvre's brown colt Nickel was second, and Mr. Crawford's bay colt by King of the South was third. The race was a very close one, the betting at the start was 13 to 5 against Golden Gate, 9 to 4 against Nickel, and 13 to 8 against the Lupa colt. Golden Gate, on the upper ground, got in front, and, making all the running, won by a length and a half. The Lupa colt was a bad third.

The Newmarket first October two-year-old plate was captured by Ring Song, a bay colt, owned by Mr. J. R. Keene, and trained by Mr. J. R. Keene. He was a very close runner, and won by a length and a half.

Money for Grandstand.—The project of the fund for Mrs. Garfield's aid in the construction of the grandstand for the Centennial Exposition, which was the subject of the subscription papers sent out a cent of the sum subscribed can be diverted to any other use than that specified in the subscription papers—that is, for the President's aid in the construction of the grandstand.

Jerome Park Races.—The first race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36. The second race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36. The third race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36.

Maline Greenbackers.—The State convention of Maline Greenbackers, called by the committee on organization, was held at the Hotel Weaver electoral ticket in the field, for the purpose of reorganizing the State committee and defining the position of the party in the coming election. The convention was held at the Hotel Weaver, and was attended by a large number of delegates.

Wisconsin Democrats.—The Democratic State convention, held at the Hotel Milwaukee, Sept. 28, was called to order at half past twelve, and after electing A. K. Delaney temporary chairman and R. W. Bachford secretary and appointing the usual committees, adjourned until three p. m.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, N. D. Pratt; lieutenant-governor, W. A. Anderson; secretary of state, Michael Johnson; treasurer, W. H. Jacobs; attorney-general, J. J. Briggs; superintendent of public instruction, Robert Green; railroad commissioner, Ambrose Hoffman; insurance commissioner, Rudolph Kemper; Mr. Graham, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, is also the nominee of the Republican party.

Minnesota Republicans.—The Republican State convention, held at the Hotel Minneapolis, Sept. 28, was called to order at half past twelve, and after electing A. K. Delaney temporary chairman and R. W. Bachford secretary and appointing the usual committees, adjourned until three p. m.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, N. D. Pratt; lieutenant-governor, W. A. Anderson; secretary of state, Michael Johnson; treasurer, W. H. Jacobs; attorney-general, J. J. Briggs; superintendent of public instruction, Robert Green; railroad commissioner, Ambrose Hoffman; insurance commissioner, Rudolph Kemper; Mr. Graham, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, is also the nominee of the Republican party.

Readjusters Interviewed.—Judge Hughes and E. B. Stewart on the Virginia Situation.

Hon. L. R. Stewart, a prominent Republican Readjuster from Richmond County, Virginia, was in the city yesterday. A representative of the Readjuster cause was interviewed.

"How is the Readjuster boom in your section?" "We are going to carry five counties that have heretofore gone against us."

"What counties do you mean, Mr. Stewart?" "I mean the counties of King George, Northampton, and Westmoreland. These are the counties of the Northern Neck."

"How is the feeling between the Republicans and the Readjusters in your section?" "The very kindest feelings prevail. The Readjusters are generous, and give us all we want. Wherever there is a Republican majority in a county they concede us the right to nominate Republicans for office."

"Has there been any doubt about your district going for the Readjusters?" "We are at present represented by a Bourbon in Congress, and as a matter of course we had some fears of a Bourbon victory this year, but now all doubts are dispelled, and we are sure of a good victory. There is no doubt about it. We are going to win this fight, and that by a large majority."

Judge H. W. Hughes, United States District Judge of Virginia, was next met.

"How is the election going in your State in regard to the Readjusters?" "The Readjusters are doing very well. I think from the present outlook in Virginia."

SENATORIAL ORATORS.

SET SPEECHES AND OFF-HAND TALK.

How Some of the Senators of the United States Senate Prepare Their Speeches and Revise Them Before They Go Into the "Congressional Record."

Colonel Brady, of Lynchburg, who is actively identified with the coalition campaign in Virginia, made a flying visit yesterday to this city. He says that the outlook is very bright and that everything is booming. He says that he has not heard anything from Jorgensen in some time, and for this reason thinks that he is not doing much. He says that the coalition ticket will get about 90 per cent. of the Republican vote, and the Republicans that will not vote that ticket will not go to the polls at all.

Confederate Visitors.—The visit of the ex-confederates of the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia to Carlisle to-day and their reception and entertainment by Captain Colwell, Post 391, G. A. R., was a magnificent success. Upon the arrival of the visitors they were cordially greeted by Post 391 of Carlisle and Post 348 of Harrisburg. The procession was formed, headed by Company G, Eighth Regiment National Guards of Pennsylvania, followed by companies containing Governor Hoyt, General Weaver, Colonel Gobin, Dr. George W. Rust, of Virginia, and other distinguished visitors. Three hundred Virginians, in line, were wearing a handsome triangular badge, presented by Post 391 as a souvenir. Accompanying the Virginians was the band of the renowned Stonewall Brigade. The visiting posts were elaborately decorated with much enthusiasm. Upon the arrival of the procession at the fair grounds addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Henry M. Hoyt and John Hays, secy., of the Virginia post, and military were frequently and patriotically responded to on the part of the ex-confederates by Dr. George W. Rust, of Lynchburg, Va. On the conclusion of the exercises the Virginians were taken to a banquet at the Hotel Hamilton, where a sumptuous dinner by Post 391.

The Atlanta Exposition.—The programme of the ceremonies at the opening of the exposition on Monday, the 4th, has been completed. The ceremonies will be exceedingly impressive. A large number of the distinguished guests of the exposition are expected to participate. The full details will be given to the press in a day or two. Most of the buildings are under way, and the exhibits are rapidly getting into place. The prices for entertainment at the hotels, boarding-houses, and private dwellings are moderate, and exhibitors are rapidly putting their displays in shape. The city is fast filling with visitors. The prices for entertainment at the hotels, boarding-houses, and private dwellings are moderate, and exhibitors are rapidly putting their displays in shape. The city is fast filling with visitors.

Another American Victory.—The Newmarket first October meeting, the Grand steeple chase two-year-olds was won by Mr. J. R. Keene's bay colt Golden Gate. Mr. Lefebvre's brown colt Nickel was second, and Mr. Crawford's bay colt by King of the South was third. The race was a very close one, the betting at the start was 13 to 5 against Golden Gate, 9 to 4 against Nickel, and 13 to 8 against the Lupa colt. Golden Gate, on the upper ground, got in front, and, making all the running, won by a length and a half. The Lupa colt was a bad third.

The Newmarket first October two-year-old plate was captured by Ring Song, a bay colt, owned by Mr. J. R. Keene, and trained by Mr. J. R. Keene. He was a very close runner, and won by a length and a half.

Money for Grandstand.—The project of the fund for Mrs. Garfield's aid in the construction of the grandstand for the Centennial Exposition, which was the subject of the subscription papers sent out a cent of the sum subscribed can be diverted to any other use than that specified in the subscription papers—that is, for the President's aid in the construction of the grandstand.

Jerome Park Races.—The first race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36. The second race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36. The third race, one mile and an eighth, was won by Sly Dancer, Cheekbone second and Perdis third. Time, 1:36.

Maline Greenbackers.—The State convention of Maline Greenbackers, called by the committee on organization, was held at the Hotel Weaver electoral ticket in the field, for the purpose of reorganizing the State committee and defining the position of the party in the coming election. The convention was held at the Hotel Weaver, and was attended by a large number of delegates.

Wisconsin Democrats.—The Democratic State convention, held at the Hotel Milwaukee, Sept. 28, was called to order at half past twelve, and after electing A. K. Delaney temporary chairman and R. W. Bachford secretary and appointing the usual committees, adjourned until three p. m.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, N. D. Pratt; lieutenant-governor, W. A. Anderson; secretary of state, Michael Johnson; treasurer, W. H. Jacobs; attorney-general, J. J. Briggs; superintendent of public instruction, Robert Green; railroad commissioner, Ambrose Hoffman; insurance commissioner, Rudolph Kemper; Mr. Graham, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, is also the nominee of the Republican party.

Minnesota Republicans.—The Republican State convention, held at the Hotel Minneapolis, Sept. 28, was called to order at half past twelve, and after electing A. K. Delaney temporary chairman and R. W. Bachford secretary and appointing the usual committees, adjourned until three p. m.

The following ticket was nominated: Governor, N. D. Pratt; lieutenant-governor, W. A. Anderson; secretary of state, Michael Johnson; treasurer, W. H. Jacobs; attorney-general, J. J. Briggs; superintendent of public instruction, Robert Green; railroad commissioner, Ambrose Hoffman; insurance commissioner, Rudolph Kemper; Mr. Graham, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, is also the nominee of the Republican party.

Readjusters Interviewed.—Judge Hughes and E. B. Stewart on the Virginia Situation.

Hon. L. R. Stewart, a prominent Republican Readjuster from Richmond County, Virginia, was in the city yesterday. A representative of the Readjuster cause was interviewed.

"How is the Readjuster boom in your section?" "We are going to carry five counties that have heretofore gone against us."

"What counties do you mean, Mr. Stewart?" "I mean the counties of King George, Northampton, and Westmoreland. These are the counties of the Northern Neck."

"How is the feeling between the Republicans and the Readjusters in your section?" "The very kindest feelings prevail. The Readjusters are generous, and give us all we want. Wherever there is a Republican majority in a county they concede us the right to nominate Republicans for office."

"Has there been any doubt about your district going for the Readjusters?" "We are at present represented by a Bourbon in Congress, and as a matter of course we had some fears of a Bourbon victory this year, but now all doubts are dispelled, and we are sure of a good victory. There is no doubt about it. We are going to win this fight, and that by a large majority."

Judge H. W. Hughes, United States District Judge of Virginia, was next met.

"How is the election going in your State in regard to the Readjusters?" "The Readjusters are doing very well. I think from the present outlook in Virginia."

ARTHUR'S TROUBLES.

WITH A FEW REFRACTORY BOYS.

How the President Organized Himself Into a Committee of One to Enforce Order and Discipline in a Country School Nearly Thirty Years Ago.

In the year 1853 the writer attended the district school at Coburn. The high department did not enjoy a very enviable reputation for being possessed of that respect due from the pupils to the teacher. During the year there had been at least four teachers in that department, the last one only remaining one week. The board of education had found it difficult to obtain a passage to Coburn, and the school was in a state of anarchy. The teacher, who was a young lady, was in a state of anarchy. The teacher, who was a young lady, was in a state of anarchy. The teacher, who was a young lady, was in a state of anarchy.

The President's Movements.—His Calves Yesterday—Visit of King Kalkakula—The Office-Secretary on Hand.

President Arthur was busily engaged all day. His law partner is still here, and the arrangements for setting up the business are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. It was the President's intention to go to New York this week, but he has changed his plans, and he has not decided when he will leave the city. While the President is prepared to transmit public business, there have been no matters as yet requiring his attention. He had a large number of callers yesterday, comprising the following members of the Cabinet: Attorney-General MacVane and Secretary Hunt, Winthrop, and Lincoln. There were also a number of other officials who called to pay their respects. The office-secretary has at last put in an appearance, not in any great numbers as yet, but still it is the office-secretary that the President will see.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS.

His Calves Yesterday—Visit of King Kalkakula—The Office-Secretary on Hand.

President Arthur was busily engaged all day. His law partner is still here, and the arrangements for setting up the business are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. It was the President's intention to go to New York this week, but he has changed his plans, and he has not decided when he will leave the city. While the President is prepared to transmit public business, there have been no matters as yet requiring his attention. He had a large number of callers yesterday, comprising the following members of the Cabinet: Attorney-General MacVane and Secretary Hunt, Winthrop, and Lincoln. There were also a number of other officials who called to pay their respects. The office-secretary has at last put in an appearance, not in any great numbers as yet, but still it is the office-secretary that the President will see.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire.

Garfield Memorial Window.—A memorial window of richly stained glass is to be placed in St. James' Episcopal church in memory of the late President. It will replace the present window of the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed by fire. The window is to be placed in the church, which was destroyed